

Jason J. Kim
2344 Greenwood Rd
Glenview, IL 60026
Phone: (847) 532-5045

Qualifications

- Well-versed in multiple coding languages including Java, Javascript, Python, and HTML with passion projects being developed.
- Accustomed to fast-paced environments with the ability to think quickly and handle difficult tasks when handed them.
- Excellent interpersonal skills with the innate ability to excel when collaborating in both leading and supporting roles.

Work Experience

Software Programmer

June 2021 – August 2021

Illinois Institute of Technology

- Brainstormed and developed software to efficiently and effectively construct workable prosthetic limbs for amputees.
- Researched the moral implications artificial intelligence has on healthcare.
- Worked alongside experts in the field of computer science through planning and coding projects.

Student Researcher

Mark Kirk Mini Medical School

January 2019 – May 2019

- Researched and had hands-on experience studying cancer and other terminal brain diseases.
- Worked alongside medical and other scientific experts to better understand technology and its medical implications.
- Shadowed physicians who were researching human central organs.

Education

BS, Computer Science, University of California Santa Cruz, Santa Cruz, CA September 2023 - June 2027

- 4.0 GPA
- Undergraduate Dean's Award

High School Diploma, Glenbrook South High School, Glenview, IL

August 2019 - June 2023

- 4.83 GPA
- AP Scholar Distinction
- National Honors Distinction

Skills

- Fluent in English (Speaking, Reading, and Writing)
- Proficient in both Korean and Chinese (Speaking, Reading, and Writing)

References

- Peter Kim, Youth Group Director, St. Paul Church, (217) 721-7179, ymad_yg@stpaulchong.org
- David Rogers, Computer Science Teacher, Glenbrook South, (847) 486-4698 drogers@glenbrook225.org